Elizabeth Munsterberg Koppitz Child Psychology Graduate Student Fellowship, American Psychological Foundation	2022
Outstanding Research Award, Society for Personality and Social Psychology (SPSP)	2021
Stanford Interdisciplinary Graduate Fellowship, Stanford University	2021
Graduate Research Fellowship Program, National Science Foundation (rejected without review)	2020
• Listening to unfortunate advice about page margins from an NSF GRFP grantwriting class sunk my chances or one. I probably learned the most from this failure: trust your gut, good friends will support you in the face of fand life does go on.
As an undergraduate at UChicago
Graduate Research Fellowship Program, National Science Foundation (honorable mention)	2018
• The result of an epic all-nighter without oversight or feedback from anyone sane (I would not recommend this)	).
Liew Family College Research Grant, Career Advancement, The University of Chicago	2017
Beinecke Scholarship	2017
Goldwater Scholarship	2017
• Some confusing advice about whether psychology was eligible as a "science" (turns out it was, thanks NSF!) can me to not submit my application.	ısed
PRISM Research Grant, Career Advancement, The University of Chicago	2017
UCISTEM Summer Research Grant, Career Advancement, The University of Chicago	2017
AASAP/UK Lord Acton Memorial Scholarship, Association of American Study Abroad Programmes United Kingdom	2016
Summer Action Grant, Career Advancement, The University of Chicago	2016
• Attempted to get funding for a prestigious yet poorly-paid summer internship I was admitted to at another univ I was genuinely asked by an employee why on earth the university would fund me to conduct research for the benefit of a competitor university	versity.
various clubs and club leadership positions 2014	-2016
Critical Language Scholarship (CLS), U.S. Department of State	2016
Amazon Student Scholarship Program, Amazon	2015
